HIGH WAVE OF REFORM

Landmarks Washed Away in Many Parts of the Country

ET TU PENNSYLVANIA, OHIO

The Philadelphia Machine Broken. McClellan and Jerome Elected by Narrow Margins. Hearst Threatens to Carry the Campaign Into Court.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The elections returns received by the Associated Press up to 2 o'clock this morning show that the democrats have carried the majority campaign in New York City; the state ticket in Pennsylvania; the state ticket in Virginia, and the city ticket in Louisville, while the republicans have made a clean sweep in Massachusetts and Chicago and Cook county and have carried the ticket in New Jersey, Rhode Island, Nebraska and Maryland. In New York, Hearst had a plurality in the borough of Brooklyn of almost 16,000 with 14 election districts missing.

Returns indicate McClellan's reelection by several thousand plurality. Hearst has charged fraud in the voting. Bird S. Coler was elected borough president of Brooklyn on the municipal ownership ticket. The New York election shows that municipal ownership will be a considerable factor in the city's vote.

The result is still doubtful, though the returns to a late hour indicated the election of Patterson, democratic candidate for governor of Ohio.

The suffrage amendment in Maryland was defeated overwhelmingly. Massachusetts elected a republican governor by a majority approximating that of Douglas, the present democratic governor.

THE PRESIDENT'S INTEREST.

Would Make No Comment on Last Night's Results.

Washington, Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt spent the greater part of the evening in the executive offices receiving the election returns. With him were Mrs. Roosevelt, Secretary Root and Assistant Secretary Bacon of the state department. In addition to the bulletins from the Associated Press the president read dispatches from party

ANOTHER BARGAIN: 40 acres under the Mesa canal with full water right in same. $2500. The ranch is about two miles this side of Mesa, every foot of it is good, sandy loam and well adapted for raising cantaloupes, grain or alfalfa; is in good neighborhood, close to schools and has rural free delivery; has an adobe and also a frame house and a frame barn, etc. This is very, very cheap. Investigate.

would be close and that Tammany must fight.

The weather of today was ideal, adding greatly to the polling of a large vote. There was little disorder and although many arrests were made they frequently were due to misunderstandings or clerical errors and only a few men were held for trial. More splitting of tickets was done probably than ever before, yet the voting was unusually rapid.

AS THE NEWS DRIFTED IN.

New York, Nov. 7.—Returns from 64 election districts give Jerome a plurality of 657 over Osborne.

New York, Nov. 7.—For district attorney 120 election districts out of 1,100: Plummer, 1,178; Osborne, 1,173; Shearn, 6,762; Jerome, 8,450.

City of New York: Mayor, 1,120 election districts out of 1,948: Ivins, 79,424; McClellan, 120,350; Hearst, 122,866.

JOURNAL CLAIMS HEARST.

New York, Nov. 7.—The Evening Journal at 8:05 p. m. said it did not concede the election of McClellan, adding that it did not authorize the report sent out on the tickets. It believes Hearst is elected by a small majority.

New York, Nov. 7.—Nine hundred and twenty election districts out of 1,100 in New York county give Jerome a plurality over Osborne of 7,660.

JEROME LOSES GROUND.

New York, Nov. 7.—The Evening Globe at 8:10 p. m. said regarding the district attorneyship, "The re-election of Jerome is in doubt. Indications at 8 o'clock pointed to the election of Osborne. The first returns received indicated that Jerome had won a big victory, but later reports gave Osborne a lead."

OSBORNE INCREASES HIS LEAD.
New York, Nov. 7.—New York county district attorney, 200 election districts out of 1,100: Plummer, 2,072; Osborne, 19,293; Shearn, 11,559; Jerome, 15,692.

WORLD SAYS MCCLELLAN.

New York, Nov. 7.—The Evening World at 8:45 p. m. announced that McClellan has secured just enough votes to elect him, and that Osborne had been elected district attorney.

New York, Nov. 7.—Mayor: 1,420 election districts out of 1,948: Ivins, 98,908; McClellan, 155,443; Hearst, 154,768.

New York, Nov. 7.—1,669 election districts out of 1,948 in the greater city give McClellan a plurality of 2,942 over Hearst.

New York, Nov. 7.—1,741 election districts out of 1,948 in Greater New York give McClellan a plurality of 2,815 over Hearst.

New York, Nov. 7.—Complete returns from the borough of Richmond give McClellan a plurality of 1,620 over Ivins and a majority of 155 over Hearst.

HEARST'S BROOKLYN VOTE.

New York, Nov. 7.—Complete returns from the borough of Brooklyn give Hearst a plurality of 15,628 over McClellan.

PENNSYLVANIA LANDSLIDE.

The Whole State Joined in the Philadelphia Movement.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Philadelphia has been swept by the reform movement, the city party ticket winning by a large plurality.

While returns from only six of the forty-seven wards in this city had been counted up to midnight, it is known in the remaining wards to indicate the defeat of the republican local ticket by from 60,000 to 75,000 plurality.

The victory of the city party is complete with the election of W. H. Berry, democratic and reform candidate for state treasurer. J. Lee Plummer, republican candidate for that office, was badly cut throughout the city and state, and he has lost his own county, which is usually republican. The result has every appearance of a landslide for reform, not only in Philadelphia, but throughout the state.

CITY REFORM-SWEEP.

The Complete Overthrow of the Machine.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—The Evening Telegraph says in its New York issue: Early reports received at the city party headquarters indicate that the reform ticket has swept the entire city. Chairman Edmonds of the city party claims the election of the reform ticket by 40,000, while more sanguine reform leaders look for a majority that may reach 100,000.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—City Party Chairman Edmonds tonight sent the following to President Roosevelt: "Philadelphia has risen to its hope and stands redeemed. The principle of honesty in government so effectively espoused by you has won an overwhelming triumph. Our majority approximates 75,000."

To Secretary Root was sent the following: "The masquerade is over. The criminal and corrupt combination has been driven from power by the righteous indignation of a great republican city. We have only begun. Our thanks to you for your splendid aid."

EARLY DEMOCRATIC CLAIM.

The Entire State Ticket by a Phenomenal Majority.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Democratic Chairman Gardner issued a statement at 7:30 p. m. claiming the election of Patterson and the entire state ticket by a phenomenal plurality.

NO LONGER BOSS.

The Resignation of the Leadership by George B. Cox.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Geo. B. Cox the well known republican leader tonight gave the Associated Press the following statement withdrawing from active service in the republican party. "Now that the election is over and that the people have signified their preference for city, county and state officials, and I sincerely trust they have selected wisely, I wish to announce to the public that from this day, after the twenty-five years of active service in the ranks of the republican party, my personal activity in politics shall cease. I will continue to vote the republican ticket, but others must bear the burden of future contests. To the local republican organization and the many friends that have stood with us in the past I tender my most grateful thanks for their loyalty and support. I hope for their future good will. Respectfully,

"GEORGE B. COX."

A HOPE OF OHIO.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 7.—At 11 o'clock tonight the result of the election in Ohio might still be considered doubtful, although the democratic leaders claimed the election of Patterson and the entire democratic ticket by a substantial plurality, while the republicans simply refused to concede such a claim, insisting that the returns were insufficient at that hour to indicate anything except that the vote had been very heavy, and that the amount of scratching had made counting very slow.

In the cities the republican loss exceeded 100 to the precinct, but as the loss outside of the large cities was so far as reported about 30 per cent there was no certainty that loss would run high enough to wipe out the 230,000 republican plurality with which comparisons were made. Less than 300 of the 4,200 precincts had been heard from at 11 o'clock.

THE UNCONQUERABLE SCHMITZ.

Union Labor Sweeps the City of San Francisco.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—For the third consecutive time Eugene E. Schmitz, union labor candidate, was re-elected mayor today by a majority of at least 15,000 over John S. Partidge, the joint nominee of the republican and democratic parties.

Returns from 314 precincts out of 325 give Schmitz 42,202; Partidge, 28,108. In addition to the mayor, the union labor party has probably elected its entire municipal ticket by majorities ranging from 1,000 to 15,000. Voting machines were used for the first time in all precincts.

But very little scratching was done. A proposition to increase the liquor license was defeated.

EARLY INDICATIONS.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—The indications are that Eugene Schmitz, union labor candidate, has been re-elected mayor by 15,000 majority.

With six precincts to hear from, the count stands: Schmitz, 42,202; Partidge, 28,108.

GUILD IN MASSACHUSETTS.

The Republican Ticket Elected by 30,000.

Boston, Nov. 7.—Lieutenant Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston, republican candidate, was elected governor in the state election today by a plurality of 29,435 over Charles W. Bartlett of Boston, democratic candidate.

The total vote for the two leading candidates was: Governor—Guild, republican, 203,834; Bartlett, democrat, 174,399.

Lieutenant governor: Draver, republican, 184,534; Whitney, democrat, 180,592.

R. I. REPUBLICAN.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 7.—Governor Geo. Uter is expected to be elected by a plurality of at least 3,000 over the democratic nominee, Lucius F. Garvin. A plurality of 1,000 was the largest looked for even by Mr. Uter's most ardent supporters.

VIRGINIA ELECTION.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—Claude E. Swanson, democrat, was today elected governor of Virginia by about 20,000 plurality over Judge L. L. Davis, republican candidate.

REPUBLICANS CARRY CHICAGO.

A Single Democrat Survived the Wreck.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—The republicans made a clean sweep of the election in Chicago and Cook county today, electing all of their candidates with the exception of one man. The sole democrat to reach the promised land was Webb, candidate for trustee of the sanitary district.

The republicans elected four judges of the superior court by pluralities ranging from 20,000 to 25,000, one judge to fill a vacancy on the bench of the superior court by a plurality of about 1,000, a judge of the circuit court by 16,000 and eight out of the nine members of the board of sanitary trustees by pluralities ranging from 1,000 to 5,000.

LOUISVILLE ELECTION.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—One hundred and forty-two precincts out of 184 in the city of Louisville gave Paul C. Barth, democratic nominee for mayor, 15,337, and O'Neal, fusion, 12,975. Barth's plurality 2,364.

WENT TO VOTE.

The President's Hurried Journey to Oyster Bay.

Washington, Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt reached Washington from Oyster Bay at 4:40 o'clock this afternoon, having been on the road since 12:50 last night, with the exception of the twenty minutes he spent at Oyster Bay casting his vote and chatting with his neighbors.

He left there at 9:20 this morning, reached Long Island City in one hour, swung around New York on a tug, and began the trip to Washington in the private car Rocket, attached to the 11:16 o'clock train over the Pennsylvania railroad. There were no incidents to mark the journey.

REBUILDER OF RUSSIA OFFICE OF COUNT WITTE

The Jews of the World Have Confidence in the Premier

The Disorders of the Empire are Further Dying Out—The Business of Forming the New Cabinet is Slowly Progressing.

London, Nov. 7.—Elkin Adler, brother of Chief Rabbi Adler of London, who has just returned here from St. Petersburg, said today: "Count Witte is the only man standing between Russia and anarchy. He is meeting with terrible opposition from the reactionaries who are also directly responsible for the massacres in Russia. Count Witte is distinctly friendly to the Jews and is in no way responsible for the massacres. It is his ambition to be the remaker of Russia and I believe that if he is left alone he will succeed. Count Witte's good faith is beyond all doubt."

REGENERATING THE EMPIRE.

Count Witte Begins the Formation of His Cabinet.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 7.—The project for a sweeping extension of the suffrage in elections to the national assembly, promised by the emperor is published. The cabinet with which Witte has undertaken the difficult task of guiding the nation's new course is beginning to take form. The names of two, Shipoff, Ivan and Dmitri are semi-officially announced as his selections for minister of finance and comptroller general. Nemechaleff it is believed will be minister of railways.

News from the provinces indicates a dying down of the reign of riot following the promulgation of the imperial manifesto. Normal conditions are gradually resuming. There are most interesting developments in Poland where the Polish national movement has blossomed forth under favorable conditions.

BESSARABIAN ATROCITIES.

London, Nov. 7.—Bucharest correspondent of the Daily Mail says atrocities continue in Bessarabia. The towns of Urnat and Calarisse burned and all Jews perished in the flames. Ismail, the correspondent also says, is in flames and martial law has been declared. Sixty six revolutionaries after being warned were shot last night.

INNER LABRADOR GRAVE OF EXPLORERS

Two Members of an Expedition Describe Their Suffering.

St. Johns, N. F., Nov. 7.—The mail boat Virginia arrived today from northern Labrador, bringing Jas. Richards and Peter Stevens, members of Dillon Wallace's expedition to explore the interior of Labrador. They left Wallace and Easton in September in the wildest part of Labrador. When provisions were growing scarce, Wallace and Easton decided to attempt to reach the Caribou country. Before this the party had suffered greatly owing to the scarcity of game, being on short rations for a considerable period.

Richards and Stevens gave Wallace and Easton every ounce of food they could spare and suffered terrible privations themselves in reaching the coast. The mail boat brought no news of Mr. Hubbard's expedition, which has not been heard of since it left the coast last June. Reliable authorities along the coast express grave fears both expeditions have perished, the season having been unusually poor for game, while snow fell on the uplands early in August. It is altogether unlikely that the expeditions can reach the coast later in this season. If they fail to do so, they must almost certainly perish.

THE WOOL MARKET.

Boston, Nov. 7.—The wool market is active and firm. Territory half bloods continue in active demand. Fine clothing had a movement at 70¢/72¢. The short California and Texas wools are without much call, but Oregon eastern met with activity at 75¢/77¢ clean. Pulled wools are doing a little better. Foreign wools are firm.

H. F. VANTILBURG

THE ADMIRAL PRINCE BALTIMORE'S GUEST

The Monument City's Cordial Reception of Him.

Baltimore, Nov. 7.—Rear Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg paid an official visit to Baltimore today. At a quarter to 5 o'clock the special train bringing the admiral-prince from Annapolis rolled into the Camden street station. It consisted of an engine, baggage car and three private cars of Oscar G. Murray, president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, who with Gilbert Fraser, the British consul, had gone to Annapolis earlier in the afternoon to escort the prince to Baltimore.

From the British squadron only his flag lieutenant accompanied the prince. Both were in frock coat uniforms and wore white caps.

Inside the railroad gates were the mayor of Baltimore, and Col. Thorpe, commanding the artillery district of Baltimore, and his aide, Captain Cruikshank, both in uniform. The cheering started as the crowd caught sight of the prince stepping from the rear platform. Cheer after cheer was hurled at him as he came through the gates, and the policemen had some little trouble in keeping a clear passage way to the station, where two open landaus were awaiting the party.
